IMARCH LTD

Company No. 16791765
Registered in England and Wales

INSTITUTIONAL CHARTER

Private Limited Company · Incorporated under the Companies Act 2006

128 City Road, London, EC1V 2NX · United Kingdom
admin@imarch.sbs · imarch.sbs

MACOSLIIUM ILLACI · FORMA RESONANTIS

PREAMBLE

This Institutional Charter (hereinafter — the 'Charter') constitutes the foundational governance document of IMARCH LTD, a private limited company incorporated in England and Wales under the Companies Act 2006.

This Charter establishes the institutional transition of IMARCH to systematic management of institutional memory and the implementation of the Vis Realitatis and Chronicle OS protocols. It governs the recognition of contributions, the structure of management, and the protection of intellectual capital.

This document is intended to serve as the authoritative reference instrument for all governance decisions, operational mandates, and institutional records of IMARCH LTD.

ARTICLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 IMARCH LTD (hereinafter — the 'Institution') operates as a private company limited by shares, incorporated in England and Wales in accordance with the Companies Act 2006.

1.2 The registered office of the Institution is situated at 128 City Road, London, EC1V 2NX, United Kingdom.

1.3 Purpose.

The Institution is established for the development and implementation of institutional architectures, systems of knowledge management, scientometric research, and cultural initiatives.

1.4 Mission.

The creation of sustainable systems for the fixation of meaning, social adaptation, and knowledge governance — constituting the infrastructure of institutional memory.

1.5 The Institution operates in full compliance with applicable United Kingdom law and any applicable international regulations governing its activities.

ARTICLE II

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

2.1 Supreme Governing Body.

The supreme governing body of the Institution is the IMARCH Council (the 'Founding Circle'), which exercises ultimate authority over all matters of strategic governance.

2.2 Executive Directorate.

Day-to-day management of the Institution is exercised by the Directorate, comprising the Creative Director and the Lead Strategist, who act in accordance with directions issued by the Founding Circle.

2.3 All decisions of the Founding Circle shall be recorded by way of formal minutes and resolutions, which shall be binding upon all persons acting within the scope of active institutional mandates.

2.4 The Directorate is accountable to the Founding Circle and shall provide such reports and disclosures as the Founding Circle may from time to time require.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP AND PARTICIPATION

3.1 Membership of the Institution is open to natural and legal persons who make a recognised contribution to its development, whether by way of resources, intellectual property, or financial support.

3.2 Members shall be entitled to:

– Access to institutional resources commensurate with their level of participation;
– Nomination for recognition within the Institution's system of awards and honours;
– Participation in consultative processes as determined by the Founding Circle.

3.3 Membership status is confirmed by entry in the institutional register, maintained and updated by the Directorate.

3.4 The Founding Circle reserves the right to suspend or terminate membership status in accordance with procedures to be established by separate resolution.

ARTICLE IV

INSTITUTIONAL MISSIONS

4.1 The principal activities of the Institution are carried out through defined operational mandates (hereinafter — 'Missions'), classified as follows:

Scientific Missions

– Formology (Universal Formology) — development and dissemination of cognitive methodology;
– Scientometrics — systems for the measurement and validation of institutional knowledge;
– Data security protocols and institutional governance frameworks.

Social Missions

– Vis Realitatis Centre — a pilot programme for the rehabilitation and social reintegration of veterans;
– Systemic adaptation programmes for individuals and communities.

Cultural Missions

– Chronicle OS — the institutional memory and digital governance infrastructure;
– Tripworking — methodologies for purposeful recovery and human development;
– Sunlife-Massage — somatic practices for psychophysiological restoration.

ARTICLE V

FINANCIAL FRAMEWORK

5.1 The resources of the Institution are constituted from the following sources:

– Grants and awards from public and private bodies;
– Donations and philanthropic contributions;
– Membership subscriptions and participation fees;
– Revenue generated through the delivery of institutional Missions and services.

5.2 Resources shall be allocated in accordance with budgets approved by the Founding Circle, with priority given to:

– Operational delivery of active Missions;
– Development and maintenance of institutional systems;
– Funding of the awards and recognition programme.

5.3 The Institution shall maintain proper accounting records in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and shall file such returns as are required by Companies House and HM Revenue & Customs.

ARTICLE VI

INTELLECTUAL CAPITAL

6.1 All intellectual property created within the scope of the Institution's activities — including but not limited to authorial works, scientific developments, methodologies, software protocols, and the Chronicle OS system — is vested in and remains the property of IMARCH LTD.

6.2 The Institution acts as the depository and custodian of its intellectual capital, ensuring its preservation, systematic organisation, and appropriate commercial or academic exploitation.

6.3 No intellectual property of the Institution may be transferred, licensed, or otherwise disposed of without the express written approval of the Founding Circle.

6.4 Contributors to the intellectual capital of the Institution may be recognised through the awards system described in Article VII, without prejudice to the Institution's ownership of such intellectual property.

ARTICLE VII

ORDERS, DECORATIONS, AND INSTITUTIONAL TOKENS

7.1 The Institution maintains a system of awards and honours as an instrument for the recognition and fixation of contribution and strategic participation in institutional Missions.

Medal for Contribution

7.2 Awarded in recognition of tactical actions and operational contributions to institutional Missions. The award threshold is equivalent to a contribution of £100 to £2,000.

Order of the Purple Mind (Grades I–VIII)

7.3 Awarded in recognition of strategic decisions and material development of the institutional architecture of IMARCH. The award threshold is equivalent to a contribution of £2,500 to £50,000.

Status of Institutional Tokens

7.4 Awards conferred under this Article shall constitute institutional tokens, recording the holder's entitlement to participation in the future distribution of profits and assets of IMARCH LTD, subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Regulation on Participation Rights in Proportional Revenue Distribution (the 'Participation Regulation').

7.5 Until such time as the Participation Regulation is brought into effect by resolution of the Founding Circle, awards shall serve a symbolic and reputational function only and shall not confer any legally enforceable financial entitlement upon the holder.

7.6 The Founding Circle shall, in due course, adopt the Participation Regulation, which shall govern in full the exercise of property rights arising from institutional token status.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENT AND INTERPRETATION

8.1 This Charter may be amended only by resolution of the Founding Circle, passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of its members.

8.2 Any ambiguity or dispute as to the interpretation of this Charter shall be resolved by the Founding Circle, whose decision shall be final and binding.

8.3 This Charter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

EXECUTED AND ADOPTED

by the Founding Circle of IMARCH LTD on the date recorded below.

Oleksandr Purpurov
Director — IMARCH LTD

Date: _____